It shall be unlawful for any retailer to fail or refuse to pay these sums to the Community.

- 9.2 If a retailer is suffering financial difficulty, or is delinquent in making payment of sales tax collected, or is apparently using tax money collected for individual purposes, the Community may recommend, and the Council may require, that the trust funds be kept segregated in a special account at a bank or other financial institution. Withdrawals from the segregated account shall only be payable to the Community, which shall be authorized to make withdrawals from the account.

- 11.3 Any other information that the Community requires to be included in the return form adopted and approved by the Council.

SECTION 13 - PENALTIES FOR FAILURE TO FILE

- 13.1 If a retailer fails to timely file a return by the time due, a penalty of ten percent (10%) of the tax due for the period or one hundred dollars ($100), whichever is greater, shall be assessed against the retailer.

13.2 For each full month the return is overdue, an additional penalty of one percent (1%) of the tax due for the period or one hundred dollars ($100), whichever is greater, shall be assessed.

13.3 For good cause shown, the Community may, in its discretion, relieve the retailer from all or part of the penalties imposed under this Section.

SECTION 15 - SEVERABILITY

If any provision of this Ordinance, as amended, or its application to any person or circumstance, is held invalid by a final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction, the invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the Ordinance which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this Ordinance are severable.

SECTION 16 - EFFECTIVE DATE

This Ordinance is effective retroactive to November 16, 2012.

19.2 The actual dollar amount of discounts on goods, including promotional or complimentary goods, given by the retailer; provided that, the retailer does not deduct such amounts from its reported gross proceeds of sales when reporting the gross proceeds of sales to the Community pursuant to this Ordinance.

SECTION 20 - GENERAL EXEMPTIONS

Sales or activities in interstate or foreign commerce or otherwise, when prohibited from being so taxed by the Constitution or general laws of the United States of America, shall be exempt from taxation under this Ordinance.
